* important notes

1. If you are unsure about conditions of sale, data inclusions or any other aspect of these lists please contact us before purchase as no refunds are available after purchase.

2. A non-exclusive licence agreement covers the use of any The Write Response lists. This product contains data only and includes no operating software or system specific instructions. As all libraries, schools and institutions are different not all records will have data in all fields nor have a matching field layout. Email addresses and fax numbers may be removed from lists at short notice due to local and international regulatory requirements. Deliverability guarantees, where applicable, do not apply to phone/fax numbers and email addresses. Personal names are only included on a consent basis.

3. Where fax numbers appear in any list it is the responsibility of the licensee to wash the list against the current Do Not Fax Register.

4. Email addresses where available may be used for email broadcast under the Spam Act 2003 ("implied consent by conspicuous publication"). You must seek your own legal advice about email broadcast before use. Email addresses are generic and not personalised.

5. Update offers only apply to previous lists purchased. Features may change without notice. The Write Response reserves the right to change, amend or withdraw from sale any list or service at any time without notice. All prices and conditions are current until 1 December 2015. The prices, offers and statements in this brochure supercede all previous information. We reserve the right to refuse sale to any person or organisation. All lists, promotional material and licence agreements are copyright of The Write Response (2015).
